

RTA Board of Directors

Michael Rosenberg

Director
Regional Transportation Authority

Michael Rosenberg was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) in 1995, representing the City of Chicago. He serves on the Board's Chairman's Coordinating, Audit and Finance committees and chairs the Mobility Limited committee.

In addition to his duties on the RTA Board, Director Rosenberg has served since 1984 as senior vice president and director of the Keywell Corporation and Keywell LLC, based in Chicago. He has also been employed by General Iron Industries, Inc., Price Watson Co., and Chicago Metals Corporation.

Director Rosenberg's civic, professional and social affiliations are many. He currently serves as chairman of the Board of Governor's of Louis A. Weiss Memorial Hospital in Chicago, a position he was elected to in 1989. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago Medical Center and the Board of Advisors of Mercy Hospital and Medical Center in Chicago. Director Rosenberg has previously served as secretary of the Chicago Board of Health; past president of the Chicago Chapter of the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries in Washington, D.C.; past president of the Young Men's Jewish Council in Chicago; past president of the Chicago Chapter of the Institute of Scrap Iron & Steel, Inc. in Washington, D.C.; past national director of the Institute of Scrap Iron & Steel, Inc. in Washington, D.C.; and past chairman of the Metals Committee of the Institute of Scrap Iron & Steel, Inc. in Washington, D.C. He is a member of the Saddle & Cycle Club located in Chicago, and a member and past president of the Bryn Mawr Country Club in Lincolnwood.

Director Rosenberg holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Knox College in Galesburg, Illinois. He resides in Chicago.

Regional Transportation
Authority