

Ride Free Application

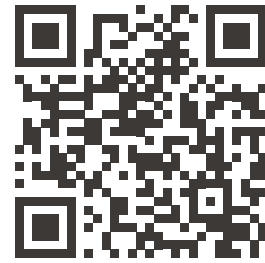

The Ride Free permit allows seniors age 65 and over or individuals with disabilities under the age of 65 to ride at no cost on CTA, Metra, and Pace bus and rail service.

Seniors and people with disabilities must be enrolled in the Benefit Access Program (BAP) administered by the Illinois Department on Aging (DOA).

Apply online now at fares.rtachicago.org and get your permit faster!

By applying online, your application will be processed within 3 days for new, renewal, and replacement Ride Free permits. The online portal works on most PCs, laptops, smart phones, and tablets.

Under new legislation, customers are only required to be approved for BAP at the time of their first application for an RTA Ride Free Permit. Customers will then only need to renew their Ride Free permit with the RTA every 5 years by completing the Ride Free application and providing an ID indicating Illinois residency. For more information about renewing a Ride Free permit, visit rtachicago.org or call 312-913-3110.
